

10th STUDENT COLLOQUIUM

Global Warming: What About Environmental Sciences?

October 7 and 8, 2026

The 10th Student Colloquium on Global Warming -open to graduate, undergraduate, and high school students- is an initiative that brings together students from around the world to present interdisciplinary projects aimed at addressing the effects of global warming.

- Tematic Areas:
 - Reducing the causes of climate change.
 - Reducing vulnerability and increasing resilience.
 - Addressing and compensating for residual damage.
 - Generating benefits for equity, health, and climate justice.
- Format:
Hybrid
- Presenters:
Include title and abstract.
Maximum 200 word.
- Location:
Classroom E, CIEMAD-IPN
Street: 30 de junio de 1520 & Bandera,
Col. La Laguna Ticomán, C.P. 07340,
Gustavo A. Madero, CDMX
- Coordination and Information:
Dra. Norma Patricia Muñoz Sevilla
Environment Coordinator,
Red Global MX Barcelona, CIEMAD-IPN.
nmunozs@ipn.mx
Dra. Sakthi Selva Lakshmi Jeyakumar
CIEMAD-IPN
sjeyakumar@ipn.mx
Mtra. María de Lourdes Aguirre Jones
CIEMAD-IPN
mlaguirrej@ipn.mx
Dra. Paulina Raquel Martínez Alanís
Collaborator, SIP-IPN
paulina.martinez@iquimica.unam.mx

Scan the code

Information and registration at:

<https://cutt.ly/10ceyca26>